

POINTS OF STRATEGY.

English War Experts Studying Out Next Move of Campaign.

BOERS ARE CONCENTRATING FORCES.

Field Marshal Roberts Will Likely Find His Road into Free State Lined With Cannons and Bayonets.

London, March 2.—With no prospect of any exciting news coming in from Ladysmith in the near future, all eyes turn once more towards Field Marshal Lord Roberts, and his advance into the Orange Free State. The critics are almost unanimous in expecting the main stand of the Boers to occur at Winburg or in its vicinity. Before Lord Roberts' advance on Bloemfontein can become effective, the strong force of Boers already gathered southwest of Paardeburg must be dispersed.

The British lack re-mounts, and the necessity of a thorough transport organization may delay a decisive action in this quarter for several days, and perhaps weeks. Making alone now awaits relief and a force to accomplish this is already on its way.

No more popular event could now occur for Great Britain than the relief of Colonel Baden-Powell's gallant little band. It is believed they are quite able to hold out until succor arrives.

In northern Cape Colony the British campaign progresses well. The whole line of the Orange river should shortly be in their possession. It is suggested that General White's garrison may be sent to sea to recuperate, but this scarcely seems probable.

The afternoon newspapers devote jubilant editorials to the joy that reigned throughout the empire, translating it as one more sign of imperial unity.

About the Prisoners.

Paardeburg, March 1.—All the prisoners were paraded. They extended in a long trailing line, like a serpent across the plain, and as far as possible were arranged in commandos. The Free Staters were kept separate from the Transvaalers. A look upon the faces of the men as they passed made it impossible to arrive at any other conclusion than that they were all overjoyed at their release from the daily hell of shell and shot which they had been experiencing lately. Many did not even take the trouble to conceal their delight from the soldiers guarding them. They chatted freely with the British, discussing the different battles in which they had fought. All the prisoners have an intense admiration for the bravery and pluck of the Highlanders, and they freely confess that they are incapable of the dash and go and pluck of the British. Some of the sick prisoners have given a vivid description of General Cronje's night march. It began in a panic and terrible confusion prevailed throughout. The huge wagons crowded the narrow road, there was an utter lack of order and desertions were numerous. From them also was learned the details of the Boer commissariat. The Boer rations consisted of one pound and a half of fresh meat daily and one pound and a half of coffee, three pounds of sugar and five pounds of flour per man weekly.

Prayed Before Eating.

Orange River, March 2.—General Cronje and his wife passed here en route to Cape Town. Elaborate precautions had been taken to prevent the public from seeing him, even the officers were ordered off of the station, and the refreshment room was kept closed before his arrival, to the discomfort of the Kimberley passengers, who were obliged to go foodless. General Cronje looks dejected and miserable, and is much grayer. He entered the refreshment room accompanied by his wife, son and interpreter, and General Prettyman and his staff. Taking his seat at a table General Cronje covered his face with his hands for a few moments as he engaged in prayer.

London, March 2.—A special correspondent telegraphing from Paardeburg, Feb. 27, says: "A curious piece of news has just been related to me by General Cronje's aide-de-camp. It appears that Cronje was in daily heliographic communication with General Dewet, who he supposed was bringing up reinforcements. Cronje heliographed that unless he was relieved immediately he would feel bound to surrender. General Dewet replied with a cheering message, urging him to hold on longer, and that he would soon be relieved, but totally failed to effect any diversion."

Buller's Casualties.

London, March 2.—General Buller's casualties among his officers during the fighting of Feb. 27 were: Killed, Colonel O'Leary of the Lancashires, Major Lewis, Captain Sykes and Lieutenant Simpson of the Scots Fusiliers, Lieutenant Mourliyan of the Warwickshires, and Lieutenant Daly of the Irish Fusiliers; wounded, General Barton, Colonel Carr of the Scots Fusiliers, and 23 others.

Supplies For Ladysmith.

London, March 2.—A dispatch from General Buller was received at the war office announcing that 73 wagon loads of supplies have entered Ladysmith, the first 11 wagons containing hospital comforts.

At Simstown.

Cape Town, March 2.—General Cronje and his party arrived at Simstown.

END IN SIGHT.

Attorneys in Clark Case Are About Through With Witnesses.

Washington, March 2.—When the senate committee on elections resumed its sitting Representative Campbell made a general statement of his expenditures in connection with the prosecution of the case against Senator Clark. Statement showed the following footings: Establishing and purchasing newspapers $19,550, expenses in the present investigation and in the Wellcome disbarment proceedings $20,704.

Mr. Campbell said the $19,550 had been expended on the three papers, the Livingston Enterprise, the Bozeman Chronicle and the Carbon County Democrat, which had been purchased or established to oppose what they believed were corrupt practices in politics. The money in these cases had only been loaned. It did not, however, include counsel fees in the pending investigation. Mr. Campbell did not know what these charges would be. All the money thus expended had been received from Mr. Daly.

State Senator Henry L. Myers was recalled and questioned concerning Ben Hill's statements. He said Hill's statement in his affidavit concerning himself was correct, while Hill's statement before the committee relating to him was incorrect. It was true, he said, that Hill had frequently come to him during the session of the legislature telling him that he came from Senator Clark; that Clark wanted him to come to his room and that he (Hill) could get him $25,000 for his vote. He had told Hill he thought $10,000 was enough for his vote, and that if Clark wanted to pay that sum for it he could put the money in Mr. Whiteside's hands.

James W. Kemper, a real estate dealer of Butt, was examined with reference to the indebtedness on the ranch of Representative E. B. Woods of Ravalli county, which indebtedness had been paid off, the purchase price being $6,900. Documentary evidence was also produced by the prosecution to show that about the same time a chattel mortgage given by Woods for $1,000 had been paid and released.

The attorneys on both sides expressed the opinion that it would be possible to conclude the presentation of testimony by the close of the week. Mr. Faulkner said he would offer very little testimony in rebuttal.

Big Tidal Waves.

Guadalajara, Mexico, March 2.—The recent earthquakes which were felt throughout southern Mexico did much greater damage than was indicated by the early reports. News from remote coast and mountain towns has just reached Guadalajara, and stories of great destruction of property and considerable loss of life are told. The severe seismic shocks had a remarkable effect on the sea, causing it to roll inland and covering the country for a distance of over one mile from the beach. This tidal inundation occurred three times in rapid succession, and every movable thing in its path was swept away.

Killed by Americans.

Manilla, March 2.—Colonel Anderson, with the Thirty-eighth infantry, employing the insurgents' own tactics, has ambushed the enemy near Batangas. Through spies, Colonel Anderson learned that a detachment of insurgents would pass a certain road. He posted his soldiers concealed among the trees lining the road, and when the enemy arrived, the Americans volleyed unexpectedly, killing 24 insurgents, wounding 30 and capturing several. Some arms and ammunition also were captured. The effect of this blow has been salutary. The enemy in that locality are dismayed.

Rice Sent to Hawaii.

San Francisco, March 2.—A new export from San Francisco to the Hawaiian Islands is rice, which has lately been sent in large quantities to Honolulu, Hilo and other outside ports. The rice is raised in Louisiana. The first shipments were made at the beginning of the plague and up to date 28,000 bags have been shipped from San Francisco.

THE SENATE CONCURS

In the House Amendment to Nippert Bill For Cincinnati.

MEMBERS DROP MANY NEW BILLS.

Before Adjourning For the Week the Statesmen in Lower Branch of the Legislature Empty Their Pockets.

Columbus, O., March 2.—After the introduction of a number of local bills and the reports of the committees, the senate adjourned till Monday, but not before the Cincinnati reorganization bill was made a law.

At 10.55 the house sergeant-at-arms appeared in the senate with a message. It was known to contain the notice of the house action on the Cincinnati bill, and a crowd followed to see what the senate would do with it.

As soon as the message was read Senator Nippert secured the floor, and said briefly that while the bill in its present form was not what the friends of it desired, they would accept it on account of the bad condition of things in Cincinnati, and the near approach of the spring election. He moved that the amendments be concurred in. Senator Cohen was on the floor as soon as Senator Nippert took his seat, demanding recognition, but Governor Caldwell recognized Senator Patterson, who moved the previous question. That question was put and declared carried. Senator Cohen tried to get the privilege of making a statement, but Senator Patterson insisted upon the previous question, and the chair rapped Senator Cohen down, but not before he had announced that he favored the bill as amended, and wanted the amendments concurred in. The vote on that question then proceeded. Senator Roubush then demanded the right to explain his vote, but that was ruled out of order. The Republicans feared that the Democrats would talk until the hour for adjournment had passed and the vote could not be taken.

The vote on the concurrence was unanimous—25 yeas to no nays. All the Democrats supported the bill as amended. The bill as amended by the house creates a board of five, to be elected this spring for 3-year terms.

In the House.

The record was broken in house by introduction of 67 bills, after which the house adjourned till Monday.

Mr. Heywood introduced his bill to reduce the penalty for delinquent taxes from 15 to 8 per cent.

Mr. DeRan introduced a bill that has been advocated by the single taxers. It proposes to submit to the voters at the November election an amendment to article 12 of the constitution, providing for local option in taxation. It provides that the people of any county, municipality or township may determine how they shall raise funds for local purposes.

Another bill by Mr. DeRan seeks to make uniform freight rates for railroads in Ohio on this schedule: For general merchandise, 7 mills per ton per mile for one or over for a distance of 30 miles or over; less than one ton in weight at the rate of 2 cents per ton per mile.

Mr. Bartlow introduced a bill affecting the construction of interurban railroads. It requires the county commissioners to publish for five weeks in newspapers a complete statement as to the proposed route, rate of speed, fares, etc., as agreed upon between the commissioners and the promoters. The consent of a majority of property owners along the right of way is required. The promoters must deposit $2,000 in earnest of their intention to complete the road, to avoid the obtaining of latent franchise concessions.

Mr. Painter introduced a bill providing that in cities having registration an enrollment must be made of the voters according to their party affiliations.

Among the general bills introduced were: To abolish present form of marriage licenses and re-enact the former marriage license laws; county commissioners on petition of five persons may furnish memorial tablet for graves of deceased indigent soldiers; requiring foreign corporations doing business in Ohio to make annual report to secretary of state of list of stockholders and amount of stock held by each; county commissioners must advertise for bids for all contracts over $500; to tax stocks and bonds the same as real estate, copied after the Ford statute in New York; all political parties in the state having cast more than 5,000 votes at five preceding elections may make nominations and have their tickets placed on the official ballot; all steam and electric railroads shall be of standard gauge; to prohibit sale of liquor on Memorial day; extend the

Nichols tax law to electric light, gas, pipe line, messenger and signal companies; to create state board for registration and examination in osteopathy; to create a state board of elections; creating into law decisions of supreme court on mortgage sales; compelling publication of clerk's report in all villages of over 500 population; to create state board of elections of four, two from each party, to be appointed by the governor, and to have charge of appointing a bi-partisan board for each county, secretary of state to be secretary ex-officio of the board; boards of education shall not employ teachers without having funds on hand or provision made to pay them; making it a misdemeanor to own a dog and not pay taxes thereon.

SENATOR HOAR

Makes a Startling Statement While Discussing Quay Case.

Washington, March 2.—In closing his argument in favor of seating Mr. Quay, Mr. Hoar said senators knew that the three seats claimed by Messrs. Mantle, Allen and Beckwith were decided against these men because they were silver men and the senate was about to enter upon the consideration of the repeal of the Sherman law.

Protest From California.

Washington, March 2.—Mr. Perkins (Cal.), when the senate convened, presented a petition of the California delegation in congress of 35 associations and of 15,000 people of California against the ratification of the French and Jamaican treaties. Mr. Hoar made the point against the petition that it ought to be presented in executive session, and that even there he would question the right of a state congressional delegation to make such a petition. Mr. Perkins thought the right of petition was sacred at all times, but the chair held that the whole matter would have to go over to an executive session.

Arguments Begun.

Louisville, March 2.—Argument in the cases involving the title to the offices of governor and lieutenant governor was begun before Judge Fields in the circuit court. Counsel for Governor Beckham, President Pro Tem L. H. Carter and General John B. Castleman, Democrats, filed a demurrer and motion to strike out the answer and reply of W. S. Taylor and John Marshall, the Republican incumbents, after which an order of argument was agreed upon and Attorney David W. Fairleigh opened for the Republicans.

Wanted in New York.

Cleveland, March 2.—Detective McConville of New York arrested Cecil Leslie, who is wanted in connection with the Franklin syndicate swindle. Leslie and his wife were arrested as they were about to take a train for Akron. He admitted that he was the man wanted, but denied complicity in the swindling operations, claiming that he only acted as advertising manager for Miller.

Storm in the East.

Buffalo, March 2.—The snowstorm which began on Wednesday continues, two feet of snow having fallen up to this time. The wind blew at the rate of 32 miles an hour, and the indications are that it will increase during the day, and that the snowstorm will continue. The storm has resulted in the most complete tie-up of railroad traffic this winter.

Recovering From Storm.

Cleveland, March 2.—While there was a marked improvement in the railroad service west of this city trains from the east continued to arrive at the Union station from two to seven hours late. Heavy snow drifts blocked the tracks east of Cleveland, but the greatest trouble was caused by the lack of telegraphic facilities for moving trains.

Both May Die.

Kansas City, Mo., March 2.—The condition of Mrs. J. Balke of Cincinnati, injured in Tuesday's wreck at Independence, is reported critical, and the hospital physicians fear for her life. W. R. Vaughan, the Cincinnati newspaper correspondent, is also much worse. G. M. Schmidlapp, the millionaire, is improving.

Another Hoosier Schoolmaster Story.

North Vernon, Ind., March 2.—At Brewersville, in front of Stearns' store, Al Fuller and Isaac Powers, a school-teacher, met and began shooting. The shooting was over the correction of Fuller's child by the teacher. Powers was shot once through the lung, and Fuller received three balls. Both men will probably die.

New York, March 2.—Colonel Matthew Atkinson died here. He was born in Ohio in 1827. At Steubenville, O., he studied law with Edwin M. Stanton, secretary of war under President Lincoln. He also took an active part in the civil war, starting out as captain of the Sixteenth Illinois cavalry.

MONEY FROM CUSTOMS

Collected In American Ports on Goods Shipped From Porto Rico.

INHABITANTS WILL RECEIVE ALL.

President McKinley Sends a Message to Congress, Recommending That Something Over Two Millions Be Given.

Washington, March 2.—President McKinley sent the following message to congress:

"Since the evacuation of Porto Rico by the Spanish forces on the 18th day of October, 1898, the United States has collected on products coming from that island to the ports of the United States the duties fixed by the Dingley act, and amounting to $2,095,455.88, and will continue to collect under said law until congress shall otherwise direct. Although I had the power and having in mind the best interest of the people of the island, used it to modify duties on goods and products entering into Porto Rico, I did not have the power to remit or modify duties on Porto Rican products coming into the ports of the United States. In view of the pressing necessity for immediate revenue in Porto Rico for conducting the government there and for the extension of public education, and in view also of the provisional legislation just inaugurated by the house of representatives, and for the purpose of making the principle embodied in that legislation applicable to the immediate past, as well as to the immediate future, I recommend that the above sum so collected and the sums hereafter collected under existing law shall, without waiting for the enactment of the general legislation now pending, be appropriated for the use and benefit of the island."

The reading of the message was greeted with Republican applause in the house, and Mr. Cannon asked unanimous consent for the immediate passage of a bill to carry out the recommendation. There was no objection and it was agreed that there should be 20 minutes debate on a side.

Mr. Bailey (Tex.), replying to Mr. Cannon, evoked a round of Democratic applause by his first sentence. If he had known when the request for unanimous consent was submitted that the bill placed at the absolute disposal of the president $2,000,000 now in the treasury and an indefinite sum hereafter to be collected, he said he would himself have taken the responsibility of objection. He would never consent, he said, to turn over to the discretion of one man money in the treasury of the United States.

Mr. Bailey's motion to commit the bill was lost, 143 to 149. The vote was then taken by yeas and nays on the passage of the bill.

Mr. Cannon moved the previous question on the Porto Rican bill, and this prevailed on a standing vote—143 to 119. A yeas and nays vote followed. The bill passed the house by a vote of 162 to 107.

Chicago Machinists Strike.

Chicago, March 2.—War is now on between the International Association of Machinists and the Chicago Association of Machinery Manufacturers. As a result of the failure to reach an agreement at a meeting between representatives of the two bodies to discuss the questions in dispute, the executive committee of the Machinists' association decided to call a general strike of machinists in Chicago, and by night it is expected that practically every union and many nonunion machinists in this city will have laid down his tools, the only exceptions being at the shops which have already signed the agreement.

Became a Heroine.

Vancouver, B. C., March 2.—Miss Logan, 21, daughter of the late Rev. Robert Logan, the first missionary to the South Sea Islands, sent out from Boston by the Congregational board of the United States, according to advices from Sydney, won for herself the title of "Heroine of the Caroline Group." It is due not only to her fearlessness in facing famine and tropical diseases, but to her personal interference in a fight between two native chiefs, in which she sustained an accidental but severe injury. She has since become an invalid as the result of the injury, and will return home.

Rubber Factory Closed.

New Haven, March 2.—The large rubber manufacturing plant of the L. Candee company here was closed, and work will not be resumed until April 1. More than 1,250 employees are thrown out of work. Owing to the extremely mild winter orders have been unusually small and the factory has been running only five days a week.

WEATHER FORECAST FOR KENTUCKY—Generally fair to-night; warmer Sunday. The Public Ledger has evidently succeeded in locating Colonel Jack Chinn. It has quit inquiring about him. The Republican papers haven't yet charged Col. Jack Chinn with tearing down the emblems of mourning placed on the State House Building in memory of Goebel. ONLY a few months ago McKinley declared in favor of free trade for Porto Rico. This week he used his influence in favor of the bill placing a tariff of 15 per cent. on all the goods the people of the island send to us or buy of us. UNDER the Republicans, our government seems to be largely a government by commission. So far during McKinley's reign there have been twenty commissions appointed that have had $1,600,000 appropriated to pay their expenses, virtually a gift of that much to the men whom the President appointed to fill them. THE one fact that more people voted for Mr. Taylor for Governor than for Mr. Goebel gives the former a moral claim which ought to be a legal claim and a Constitutional claim, and which should deprive any legal or Constitutional claim to the contrary of the respect of mankind.—Brooklyn Eagle. Now, please tell us about the claims of many Democrats who have been elected to Congress, some by as high as 6,000 majority, but who were turned out by Republicans? When your party quite unseating Democrats sent to Congress, then you can with some consistency talk about moral claims, legal claims and constitutional claims. THE State Senate has passed an amendment to the Goebel election law. This amendment abolishes the party devices on the ballot and requires that the State Librarian shall furnish the ballot paper in order that it may be of uniform thickness all over the State. It requires the State Board of Election Commissioners to appoint at least one Republican on each county board, and requires the county boards to appoint two election officers in each precinct from each of the two strongest parties, to be selected from lists submitted by the constituted party authorities in the various counties. Of course the Republicans will make a great kick against abolishing the party devices. SINCE the treaty with Spain, the Porto Ricans have imagined they were a part of this country, but a Republican Congress, by an act passed this week, tells them that they will have to pay a tariff of 15 per cent. on their goods and products sent to this country or bought from us. Here is the principal paragraph in the bill: "Sec. 3. That on and after the passage of this act all merchandise coming into the United States from Porto Rico and coming into Porto Rico from the United States shall be entered at the several ports of entry upon payment of 15 per cent. of the duties which are required to be levied, collected and paid upon like articles of merchandise imported from foreign countries." In other words, while the island belongs to the United States and is under our control, the Republicans propose to levy a tariff tax upon her people and class the island, in this respect, as a foreign country. That's a good way to pacify the Porto Ricans and get their trade! Loud Shirt Causes Lawsuit. [Norfolk (Va.) Cor. Washington Post.] H. Garrett Smith to-day entered a novel suit against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway for $2,000 damages. He alleges that the purser of the company's ferry steamer Louise compelled him to travel from Norfolk to Newport News as a second class passenger, when he held a first-class ticket. During an extremely warm day last summer Smith traveled to Newport News without a coat. He wore a negligee shirt. The purser of the Louise informed him that passengers were not allowed in the first-class cabin in their shirt sleeves and compelled him to go below. Plaintiff avers he suffered to the amount sued for. A Thousand Tongues Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this royal cure: "It soon removed the pain in my chest and I now can sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c. and $1. Miss Lottie Reespe, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. E. McCann, of Lexington, assisted her in receiving her guests at her reception Wednesday afternoon. Four hundred invitations were issued, and during the afternoon over three hundred responded. The Herald speaks of the reception as one of the largest and handsomest social events of the season at that place. It says: "The hospitable home on West Third street was brilliantly lighted for the occasion. The chandeliers were hung in smilax and the mantles banked with roses, many of which were the gift of friends. Palms and rubber plants filled in the corners and gave the place an appearance of a huge hot-house. Under an alcove draped in smilax Saxton's Orchestra made sweetest music, and the scene was a most enchanting one. In the back parlor a huge circular table was decorated in red. In the center a piece of Battenburg lace, covered a red satin centerpiece. On this stood a cut glass vase of American Beauty roses. Red candles burned in silver candelabra and bonbons, almonds, etc., were scattered at intervals over the table. The cakes were beauties, the artistic work of Mrs. Sallie Appleton. In the dining room to the right of the hall, a table similar to the red one was set in pink. The sideboard and mantle were banked in pink roses and carnations, and there were numerous small tables in corners. A pretty feature of this reception was that each guest was seated while being served. "The menu consisted of several delicious courses of substantial, ices, coffee, etc. At a table in the hallway Miss Bessie McCann, the handsome young daughter of the household, served a refreshing glass of punch to the guests on entering. She wore a pretty gown of pink crepe and was assisted by Miss Annie Huffman in white Paris mullin and Miss Elsie Stoll in blue mull. The front parlor was elaborately decorated in American Beauty roses, and the hall in calla lilies." Miss Reespe was gowned in blue organdie. She also assisted Mrs. Richard Stoll in receiving at a reception on Tuesday afternoon. RAILROAD ASSESSMENT. Valuation of the L. and N. and the Maysville and Big Sandy in This City and County. [Enquirer.] The suit of Mr. Frick against Mr. Carnegie exposes the enormous profits of the Carnegie-Frick concern and suggests an examination by the proper United States authorities as to how much gouging there may have been in the sale of armor plate to the Government. Indeed, the proof that there has been extortion is furnished almost ready to hand. Such things have been intimated in the debates in Congress when the question of appropriation for armor plate has been up; but those who have had charge of the subject have usually been able to spread their own impressions about the honesty of the transaction on the other Senators and Representatives. The Avalon passed up this morning. The Queen City for Portsmouth tonight. Heavy rains fell Wednesday and Thursday at headwaters and the rivers are all rising. The Speedwell resumed her trips Friday, passing down at 4 p. m. She is tonight's packet for Portsmouth. The big rise coming will further endanger the sunken steamers Nisbet and Stanley and they may prove a total loss. A rise of eight feet is reported from Pittsburgh Friday, and there was a rise of six feet at Hinton. Look out for a big river in a few days. The White Collar steamer Courier, that knocked out a cylinder head a few nights ago and has been lying at the bank, has completed her repairs. In backing away from the wharf at Portsmouth, the Avalon broke two or three buckets on her wheel in the heavy ice. She then ran against the City of Pittsburgh and broke a couple of arms. She passed down Friday morning, having completed repairs. The sunken White Collar steamer Henry M. Stanley was in great peril from the ice all of Thursday and those at work at the wreck were afraid her cabin would be carried off. Divers Lawrence and Vic. Ehrhart are all ready to begin work pumping her out when the river falls. It is estimated that there are 5,000,000 bushels of coal loaded and ready for shipment from Pittsburgh and if the water holds out any length of time the entire amount will be shipped, as most of the coal is in the harbor in boats and barges, and ready to be taken out as soon as the towboats arrive from lower river points. Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. a bottle at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

Blue Jeans.

On Tuesday, March 6th, "Blue Jeans" will be seen at the opera house. Joseph Arthur's famous comedy drama has aroused a national interest by a clever portrayal of a class of people that had not previously figured in our drama. The unique characters of Rising Sun are entertaining in themselves, but Mr. Arthur has very much heightened the interest by the strong and ingenious plot that he has provided. It is all quite within the range of probability, natural and life like, and yet intensely interesting. The company is an excellent one and the production is complete in scenic embellishment, special pains being taken with the famous saw mill scene.

"As Long As It Lasts"

For the Farmer.

W. W. Thompson, of Mt. Sterling, sold and delivered to Jos. Hendrick, at Flemingsburg, ten mules at $45 per head and 8 at $35 per head. The mules were all weanlings and were purchased in November by Thompson at prices ranging from $14 to $20, or an average of about $17 per head.

Edward Blair, representing the Continental Tobacco Co., in Harrison County, has purchased about 1,500,000 pounds of the weed, the usual price being 7 1/2 to 9 cents per pound. The highest price paid by Mr. Blair was to Peddicord Bros., who received 10 cents per pound for a crop of 23,000 pounds.

Cynthiana Democrat: "J. W. Boyd, is the possessor of forty good two-year-old mules. Since the war in South Africa has been in progress the price of mules has steadily advanced. Orders in this country have already aggregated more than seventeen thousand. So Mr. Boyd has been holding these forty mules with the expectation of a nice profit. Since January court day, three weeks ago, he has been offered $10 a head more for them than was offered at that time. That is a profit of more than $400 in three weeks. The beauty of it is those forty mules cost Mr. Boyd practically nothing, since he purchased 120 head last fall and has sold off 80 head for more than the whole bunch cost."

Mr. D. F. FRAZER has been elected a director of the Loudon Park Building Association of Lexington.

Farmers Should Take Advantage of This Special Offer.

Early last fall, when the advance began in the iron markets, the Frank Owens Hardware Company, tempted by the handsome profits to be made by large purchases, contracted with the American Steel and Wire Company for a large invoice of their field fencing, to be delivered in car-load lots, at the ruling price at that time.

It proved a wise deal, for prices since have gone sky-high; but it soon became evident that they had stocked up too heavily on that article, and to dispose of it in due time they would have to offer special inducements. The firm began to advertise that they would continue to offer this fencing to the farmers at prices prevailing before the advance, and Mr. Owens informs us that, as a result of this offer and advertising in the BULLETERIN, they have disposed of more wire field fence since last fall than they did in the two or three previous seasons.

In addition to this previous liberal offer, and as a special inducement to County Court day buyers, they have decided (for that day only—next Monday) to make an extra special discount, for cash, on every bill of American Steel Woven Wire Fence sold. Their display announcement elsewhere gives further particulars.

PETER COOKE, Jos. F. Walton and Wm. Kabler have been appointed to appraise the personal estate of George Gamby, deceased.

SPREAD OF CHRISTIANITY.

Wonderful Changes Wrought in Japan Since Missionaries First Entered That Country.

[Enquirer.]

At the Ninth Street Baptist Church Sunday morning Rev. Warren G. Partidge spoke on "World-Wide Missions."

He said in part:

"The nineteenth century has been a marvelous century for the progress of foreign missions. Forty years ago the first Protestant missionaries entered Japan. There were proclamations by the Japanese Government on every highway threatening the missionaries with death for being in the country. To-day there are enrolled in the membership of the Protestant churches over 40,000 Christian Japanese church members. Japanese Christians have great influence in that country. One recent writer says: 'The Speaker of the Parliament, in recent years, is a Japanese Christian; two out of the four of the central committee which direct the dominant political party are Christians.'

Think of the present famine in India. In parts of India people are giving away their cattle and their children. In the lack of rain many of the people cannot find food to keep their cattle alive. Christian missionaries are taking many of these forsaken children and are feeding them and teaching them. In former famines in India the missionaries became the true friends of the poor and needy people, and in this way many of them were won to Christ. It is cruel to think that the merchants in the famine times advance the price of grain, and that they even form 'trusts' and force up the price of food, when they have abundance to sell. While the inhuman merchants are closing their stores filled with grain, refusing to sell unless they are paid exorbitant prices, the Christian missionaries are feeding the poor and starving natives and saving them and their children."

Strange Phenomenon.

[Ripley Bee.]

Early risers were surprised last Saturday morning to see a large cross over the moon. It looked to be about fifteen feet in length and as perfect as the cross on the steeple of the Catholic Church. This strange phenomenon was visible between 5 and 6 o'clock, and was witnessed not only by a number of our citizens, but by people back in the county. What does it mean?

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

(By Robert Taylor.)

Whatever may be Jack Chinn's faults, we believe no one has ever accused him of dealing in chili music.

The Republicans have again covered themselves with glory in the recent act of vandalism at Frankfort in tearing down the insignia of mourning for Governor Goebel from the walls of the Capitol Building. Likely this will be laid to the charge of Jack Chinn.

Had the Republican press been more assiduous in counseling moderation and useless vituperation, villification and abuse previous to the assassination of Governor Goebel, it might now be spared the useless labor and waste of time trying to prove that its party is not responsible before the whole country for that lamentable occurrence.

Although Kentucky has attained such unpleasant notoriety on account of recent occurrences, we doubt very much whether the individual whom we once heard conversing with himself as to the relative merits of Kentucky and Ohio has changed his views in the least. His summing up of the case, at Cincinnati one night, many years ago was that, "I would rather be found dead in Kentucky than to live in Ohio."

The Four D's.

Chas. Spurgeon once said that there were three great enemies to man,—"dirt, debt and the devil." He might have added one more and included dyspepsia. The evil results of this disease could hardly be exaggerated. Its effects are felt in mind and body, and are as far reaching as the effects of the curse that was laid on the jackdaw of Rheims which was cursed in "eating and drinking and sleeping, in standing and sitting and lying." The good effects of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are most marked in aggravated and chronic cases of dyspepsia. It enables the stomach glands to secrete the necessary quantity of digestive fluids, and this at once removes that craving or gnawing sensation so common to certain forms of indigestion. It tones and regulates the stomach, invigorates the torpid liver and gives the blood making glands keen assimilative power. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures ninety-eight per cent. of those who use it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are superior to all other laxative medicines when the bowels are obstructed.

OUR OFFER FOR MONDAY

While we have been in a position to offer special inducements to purchasers of Wire Field Fencing, having bought so largely last Fall, before the heavy advance, we have decided, in order to test the effectiveness of our advertising, to make an extraordinary offer for next Monday only—County Court day.

ON EVERY SALE OF AMERICAN STEEL FENCING MADE THAT DAY WE WILL GIVE A SPECIAL DISCOUNT.

This offer is in addition to the low figures we already name, which is less than a car-load could be bought for from the factory at the ruling price to-day.

Of course it is understood that CASH is the main condition of this offer; in fact that is the article we are most in need of just now, hence the liberality of this proposition.
